Remarks

Pre-Construction. To be built. Why choose between your perfect sanctuary and stunning sunsets when you can have both. Every evening, the horizon performs a breathtaking masterpiece and from your private terrace at 3950 Red Rock Way, you hold the best seat in the house. Set upon a rare half-acre waterfront lot with 50 feet of frontage on Roberts Bay, this 6,850-square-foot modern coastal estate captures the essence of Sarasota luxury: enchanting artistry, seductive serenity, and a seamless connection to water and light. This new-construction residence, designed for those who refuse to compromise beauty for function, rises with quiet confidence above manicured grounds. A private courtyard garden greets you—tranquil, lush, and softly lit. Inside, 12-foot ceilings and walls of glass erase the boundary between indoors and out, filling each space with western light that glows from sunrise to sunset. Warmed by dual fireplaces, the heart of the home flows through a grand open living area. The chef's kitchen, a pristine and stylish space for guests, is anchored by Miele appliances, two sculptural islands and features a well-appointed scullery. The engine that drives a flawless entertaining experience. A whisper of a nush opens the retractable glass, where the world outside
